

T.A. Burkellow

T. A. Ritrkcllow (Burkellow?), Dealer in Stores and Tinware, etc., North Main Street.—A well and favorably known concern engaged in this line in Washington is that of Thomas A. Burkellow, dealer in stores, tin ware, house furnishing goods, etc., whose deservedly popular establishment is located on North Main Street. This thriving enterprise was originally started in 1875, by J. J. Jordan, he conducting it up to 1880, when he was succeeded by the present proprietor, who has since continued the business with uniform success, the trade growing year by year, until now it is very substantial.

He occupies ample and commodious quarters, and carries a heavy and excellent stock, comprising stoves, ranges, tin ware, house furnishing goods, oil stoves, gasoline stoves, etc., a specialty being made of tin-roofing and kindred work, satisfaction being guaranteed in every instance. Several efficient hands are employed, and the trade, which is very large, extends all over the city and surrounding country.

Mr. Burkellow is a native of Washington County, is a man of push and energy, and is well known and highly regarded in the community. He represented the Second Ward of Washington in the City Council from 1883 to 1884, rendering the utmost satisfaction to the public and earning credit for himself.
